

HOME-COMING OF KEARNS.

Utah's Junior Senator Now on the Atlantic's Bounding Billows.

REPUBLICANS ARE JUBILANT

Glad to Know That He Will Be Here To Participate in His Party Councils—Other Political News.

The home-coming of Senator Kearns was the cause of some discussion and no little speculation among Republicans today. The fact that he comes to enter the councils of the party is looked upon by some as an omen that there will be "something doing," although what that "something" is, very few are in a position to state. The more conservative, however, lay no particular stress on his coming, as they regard it as merely natural that he should desire to be at home during a period of political activity such as is now at hand. They argue that he owes it to his party to be here, and that while he may take very little part in it himself, his presence and advice will be invaluable to those whose business it is to manage the forthcoming campaign.

Senator Kearns sailed from Havre on Saturday. On leaving he expressed himself as more satisfied than ever with the position held by the United States in the world's trade. In his travels abroad he had found Americans foremost in everything, and he had no doubt but in time more pronounced than it is at the present time. America, he was persuaded, could hold her own at anything.

REPUBLICANS MEET.

County Committee Decides on Primaries and Apportionment Delegates.

At a meeting of the Republican county committee held late Saturday afternoon, it was decided that primary elections for the election of delegates to the state convention would be held Friday, Sept. 5, at 8 p. m., and those for the election of delegates to the county convention, on Thursday, Sept. 18, at 8 p. m. The county convention, it was agreed, would take place in the Salt Lake theater, Sept. 22 and 23. At the county primaries each district will elect a district chairman, district secretary and three district committeemen, those to constitute the campaign committee in their respective localities.

The apportionment of delegates to the state and county conventions was based on the vote cast for Gov. Wells in 1900. For the former it provides for 11 delegates apportioned to the several districts as follows:

At the meeting it was also decided to hold a grand rally at the Salt Lake theater on Friday, Oct. 31, at which a great many prominent speakers will be invited to take part.

POLITICAL POINTERS.

Atty. D. D. Houtz of Provo, it is said, has announced his conversion to Republicanism.

Judge King, it is expected, will return from the east this week.

Reports have it that ex-Senator Frank Cannon may be the nominee of the Democratic party for Congress.

A number of delegates to the Nevada state Democratic convention, at Reno, were in the city today. They had from Lincoln county and propose to get a good share of patronage at the convention. Their names are J. A. Denton, J. A. Clark, Ed Clark, Joe Conway, Levi Lippus, A. S. Thompson, Joseph Earl and Herman Frudenthal.

The Utah State League of Republican clubs, will hold a meeting at Republican headquarters in the Central block on Wednesday, afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Chairman W. M. Roylance, of the Democratic state committee, returned from the east on Saturday afternoon.

Mosiah Evans of Lehi is mentioned for the state senate on the Republican ticket. Charles Marks of Lehi is named for the lower house on the same ticket.

Joseph H. Earl has been appointed registrar of North Point precinct.

The Republicans of Garfield county have named the following delegates to the state convention: R. Carter, John F. Childers, R. W. Seay, J. J. Steiner, J. E. Steele, A. E. Griffin and Joseph Goulding. As alternates Thomas Levy, Joseph Cameron, S. E. Henrie, W. M. Lloyd, D. L. Heywood and Alfred Luthers have been selected. They will work for Judge W. M. McCarty for the supreme bench.

The friends of W. H. Brown of Murray, think he would make a good candidate for commissioner on the Democratic county ticket.

Hon. Frank J. Cannon was in the city today.

Hon. Aquila Nebeker, prominently mentioned by his Democratic friends for Congress, is shooting sage hens in the wilds of Rich. And reports say that he is quite successful.

Chairman Warren of the Democratic county committee was quite busy today figuring out the apportionment of delegates to the county convention.

It will be tomorrow night's meeting of the committee, and will be on a basis of the votes cast for Congressman King at the election two years ago.

State Senator Willis Johnson of Platte county is stopping at the White House for a few days.

Idaho people visiting in this city believe that the Idaho Republicans made a mistake in "hugging" the sheep question into their platform, as it is a knife that cuts both ways.

A. P. Lewis, president of the Majestic Copper company, is being talked of for the legislature, his friends in Beaver being desirous of placing him upon their ticket. Mr. Lewis is a Republican.

Fred J. Leonard is a busy man these days. Fred, as is well known, is a prominent Republican, and he is putting forth every energy to have George A. Smith nominated for Congress. Fred believes Mr. Smith the logical candidate for the place, but as Mr. Smith has refused to become a candidate, save in a passive or receptive sense, Mr. Leonard, it will be seen, has a big job on his hands.

Seen by a "News" reporter today Mr. Leonard talked interestingly of the political situation. Said he: "I am working for Mr. Smith because I believe him the best man for the place; and I say this in all respect to the other candidates, for they are all my friends. If the supreme judgeship goes to an outside man—and I believe it will—Smith then becomes the only logical candidate for congressman from this state."

Asked as to whether the congressional nomination would at all figure in the senatorial contest Mr. Leonard replied with an emphatic "No," supplementing this with the statement that they were as wide apart as the heavens and the earth. There was no reason why they should come together. One, said he, would be dealt with in the state convention, the other would be handled by the legislature.

S. A. Kerner's Great Campaign is on the street. It denominates Joseph Howell the leading candidate for the Republican nomination for representative to Congress.

James Meeks, a prominent young Republican of Loa, Wayne county, is in the city. Mr. Meeks is being urged to run for the legislature, and is all likelihood he will. Mr. Wayne is a very Republican, as with a total voting strength of 500, it gave his party a majority of 40 at the last election.

BIG SUNDAY BUSINESS.

Saloons Carried On Open and Profitable Trade Yesterday.

The saloons of the city pined a wide open and profitable business yesterday. Many of them apparently had no thought of the day being on the forbidden list. On the contrary they proceeded much the same as on other days, and carried the traffic on far into the night. In many cases policemen walked by the saloons as men walked in and out in twos and threes and in some instances in big bunches. It seemed to be an understood thing that this could be done without danger of arrest. There were some of the so-called better class of saloons that were closed but generally speaking they were open. It is also stated that the gambling houses had players at work as usual.

and it is believed by the promoters that this proposed move would result in greater economy of administration and effectiveness of effort. When "the late lamented" Mabry was pastor of the First church he proposed to combine business with religion in the rebuilding of the church edifice into a great business structure, with a central hall for worshiping purposes, and the rest of the building as business offices. This is the plan on which the First Methodist church of Chicago is operated, and an investment it pans out immensely.

Conducting the various Methodist churches in this city as independent bodies has proved rather expensive, and it is claimed has operated largely to scatter rather than concentrate evangelistic effort. Further moves in this line will be watched with much interest by the other denominations, as well as by the Methodist body itself.

CHURCH-GOERS OF WINDY CITY

Enterprising Daily Paper Took a Census Yesterday.

WOMEN ARE MORE DEVOUT.

General Results Show That 123,000 Ladies Attended, While Only 80,844 Men Were Present.

Chicago, Aug. 25.—For the purpose of ascertaining what proportion of the population of Chicago attends church on Sunday, the Record-Herald yesterday made a count of the men and women at the larger places of worship within the city. The general results follow:

Men at church.....$9,844
Women at church.....123,000
Total.....132,844

Men in Chicago.....561,153
Women in Chicago.....727,692
Total.....1,288,845

PERCENTAGE.

Men at church.....12.4
Women at church.....17.0
Men and women at church.....15.8
The total number of churches in Chicago, according to the city directory for 1902, is 666. Manifestly it would be impossible to count the attendance at all of these churches, except by elaborate preparation. One hundred and twenty-five leading churches were therefore selected and a careful count was made of the people present with the following results:

Men.....26,918
Women.....41,241
Total.....68,159

It was decided after a study of statistics, that a conservative estimate of the total number in attendance at all the churches of the city yesterday would be three times the numbers counted.

To determine the percentages that these numbers bore to the total adult population of Chicago, the United States census of 1900 was used as a basis. As the population increased from 654,400 in 1900 to 1,288,845 in 1902, it was considered that the population for 1902 could reasonably and conservatively be considered 10 per cent greater than it was in 1900, and the percentage computations were made on this basis.

Drowned While Bathing.

Grace Leases Battle Abbey.

New York, Aug. 25.—Battle Abbey, the historic pile which marks the spot where Harold, surrounded by his Saxons, fell before the axe of William the Conqueror, at the battle of Hastings, has been leased for a term of years, says the Herald, to Michael P. Grace, brother of former Mayor William R. Grace.

Mr. Grace will use the abbey as a winter residence.

For a long time, Grace has leased Lord How's estate in Hertfordshire, for his winter home.

Battle Abbey, which belonged to the late Duchess of Cleveland, wife of the fourth and last Duke of Cleveland, and mother of Lord Rosebery, was sold at auction last autumn to Sir Augustus Frederick Walpole Webster, a descendant of Sir Thomas Webster, who bought the abbey from the sixth Viscount Montague in 1718, and in whose family it remained until 1900.

The purchase price was the equivalent of $1,000,000.

Twelve-Mile Swim.

New York, Aug. 25.—Herman Deutz has succeeded in swimming from the Battery to Coney Island, a distance of 12 miles, in seven and a half hours. He was so completely exhausted when he reached the pier that he dropped unconscious on the beach. Restoratives were administered and he revived sufficiently to start home after a few hours rest. Deutz was one of the seven members of the volunteer life saving corps who entered in a swimming contest from the Battery to Coney Island. Several harbor guards and ladders accompanied the swimmers. When off Fish Beach, Deutz asked for a stimulant. While he drank it he supported himself on the boat. For this reason a protest was made by the other contestants.

Marshall Goodwin Dies.

Thrilling Escapes.

Monteagle, Tenn., Aug. 25.—At Forest Point last night Miss Vinnie Tucker, a prominent young woman of Decherd and one of a party on a mountain trip, stepped over the cliff. Sidney Cowan of Nashville sprang to her rescue. He caught her but too late to prevent her falling. Both were dragged over the precipice, together and landed on the tuffine, 35 or 40 feet below. Though Cowan was badly shaken up he was still conscious as his body rolled down the ledge and he caught hold of a bush which steadied his descent. Miss Tucker, bleeding and unconscious, was rolling down the way he had gone. As she passed he caught and held her.

Volcanic Eruption Causes Citizens To Vacate Champerico.

San Diego, Cal., Aug. 25.—The Kosmos liner Kambyra, which has arrived here from Hamburg, via the west coast of South and Central America, reports that while running through the tropics she was in many electric storms which lighted up the heavens in a wonderful manner. When she approached Champerico, on the west coast of Guatemala, the lights of active volcanoes were seen for many miles at sea. Upon reaching port it was found that the inhabitants of the Nap Cost His Life.

New York, Aug. 25.—Louis L. Conway, a former in the city clearing department, lay down on a cliff at 11th street and the Speedway for a nap. After sleeping an hour he awoke, and, in stretching, lost his balance, rolled over the edge of the cliff to the Speedway below, a distance of 160 feet, and was instantly killed. Conway's fatal fall was witnessed by several pleasure seekers on the cliff.

HAVE HAD ENOUGH.

Boer Generals State Burglars Will Be Faithful Subjects of Edward.

New York, Aug. 25.—The attitude of the Boer generals on the continent is regarded here as absolutely correct. cables the London correspondent of the Tribune. It has been impossible to investigate them into schemes of lawlessness and mischief, and General Botha's reported statement that it is the burghers' wish to live in South Africa and to observe and respect the laws of the British empire, and that they themselves faithful subjects of King Edward, enhances the respect that Englishmen have hitherto felt for him.

ENJOYING SEA BREEZES.

King and Queen of England Slowly Sailing Up the Coast.

New York, Aug. 25.—The king and queen are slowly sailing north in the royal yacht, and are expected, says the Tribune's London correspondent, to land at Aberdeen at the end of the week. Thence they will proceed by special train to Balmoral. The duration for their stay in Scotland is undecided. Much will depend on the nature of the weather. In all probability they will go for another yachting trip next month, from Aberdeen to Copenhagen, to pay a visit to the king of Denmark and to meet the emperor of Russia.

WORK ON THE TRACK.

Dirt Began to Fly on Agricultural Park Course Today.

The new half-mile race track to be constructed at Agricultural park is now under way. The work was started today and will be pushed to rapid completion. The course has been staked out and the graders are under contract to have the course ready for training by Sept. 1. When the track is completed practically all the speed horses now quartered at Calder's will be removed to Agricultural park, and from then on there will be something doing nearly every day. The old track is about 150 feet over a half mile, but that will be cut off in the construction of the new speedway. Owing to the liberality of the purses offered by the D. & M. society, it is expected that a number of outside racers will be brought here.

DOG MAN CHALLENGED.

City Canine Catcher Gets After Country Dogs and Causes Trouble.

The question of the right of the city dog catcher to impound a country dog which has followed his master into the city and is caught while playing around the farmer's place, has been brought to complete his business and return home, has again arisen and has been submitted to the authorities for settlement. The matter was submitted to the county attorney's office on Saturday, but, as it was considered a city matter, the dog catcher and the farmer were instructed to see the city attorney. He not being in the building at the time, an opinion was not obtained.

On a number of occasions farmers' dogs have been captured by the dog catcher and held for charges, and not long since a farmer resented the capture of his dog and a personal encounter ensued between himself and the dog catcher. The owner of the dog captured on Saturday afternoon tried to get the dog catcher to release his canine so it could follow him back home, and explained to him the circumstances. The dog catcher refused to release the dog and it was finally agreed to lay the matter before the proper authorities. Being unable to find the city attorney it was finally agreed that the dog should be released upon condition that the farmer take him right home. The point raised is one which the farmers would like to have settled so that their rights to have their dogs accompany them to town can be established.

PACIFIC NORTHWEST AGAIN.

Franchise Offered to Salt Lake and Ogden to Cast Lots With League Up North.

The proposition for Salt Lake and Ogden to join the Pacific Northwest league is up again, and this time it is hoped it will not down. According to the latest information, the league will receive Salt Lake and Ogden with a glad smile and give them a free franchise into the bargain. If the scheme can be carried through it will be a great thing for Utah fans, and particularly those in Salt Lake and the Junction city.

Local enthusiasts have long wished for an opportunity to join hands with the Northwestern crowd, and now the chance has come. But it will take some good hard and persistent hustling on the part of the promoters here to carry the scheme to its completion.

The invitation has been sent down here by President Lucas of the league, and also by Manager McCloskey of the Butte aggregation. Jack Huston, erstwhile first baseman and captain of the local team, has been holding down the initial bag for Butte, and he is now in the city, acting as a missionary for the Montana people. He is talking an eight club league for all he is worth and says it will be a sure go if the Utah towns will put in the right kind of teams. The right kind of teams means the very best that can be procured, and it is now up to the local baseball enthusiasts to say what shall be done.

President Lucas and Mr. McCloskey both say that Salt Lake and Ogden are good baseball towns, that an eight-club league would surely be a success, and if the teams are forthcoming, the franchise will be gladly given. According to Huston, Mr. Lucas does not demand that a big sum of money be put up as a guarantee, or that any sum be deposited, as he believes Salt Lake would prove to be one of the best paying towns in the league. The annual meeting of the league officials will be held early in November, but in October, probably the 15th, Lucas and McCloskey will be in Salt Lake, and will be glad to confer with any "angel" or "angels" who care to take up the project.

EMANCIPATION OF AMERICAN CHURCH.

London, Aug. 25.—In a dispatch from Rome, the correspondent of the Chronicle says that Rev. Benj. T. Kiley, bishop of Savannah, Ga., had an audience with the pope prior to visiting other Italian cities, and took advantage of the occasion to urge upon the pontiff the wishes of a large number of American bishops for the emancipation of American Catholicism from the jurisdiction of the Vatican.

PACKARD APPARENTLY ANXIOUS TO LAND WEAVER AGAIN.

"Buck" Weaver, once captain and manager of the Denver team, will probably be wearing the Grizzly uniform again before many days. President Packard is now negotiating with the ex-Denver player with a fair prospect of soon annexing his signature to a contract for the balance of the season. If "Buck" does well with the Grizzlies as he has been doing this year with the Utah league he will also be on the payroll of the team for the coming season. Weaver's addition to the team should materially strengthen the local aggregation if he keeps up the gait he maintained in the Mormon organization. His return to Denver will also be in the nature of a vindication for the ex-Denverite if he succeeds in making good and will demonstrate that part of the "knocking," which was so persistently indulged in the early part of last season, was ill advised. Weaver, it will be remembered, was selected as the manager of the Denver team after it was found that "Pete" Lohman, who was originally slated for the berth, preferred to continue to tinker in the sunny clime of California. Weaver was put at the head of the team, and after a few overtures by Colonel Hammer and his band of expert batters, President Packard gave way and released Weaver. "Captain Tom" Brown taking the helm for the Denver team. Weaver, while possibly not an ideal head of a team, was a fairly good player and after a short time he went to Utah, where he has remained so far as his connection with baseball is concerned. He has been hitting the ball like an expert there, and he can do two-thirds as well here he will excel the average made by half of the Denver players.—Denver Republican.

SHOT AT THE BOY.

Fourteen-Year-Old Youngster Gives Policeman Lively Chase.

Joe Wilson, a lad 14 years of age, gave Officer Johnston the race of his life yesterday morning. The run was made by the boy to evade being locked up in jail on the charge of stealing some merchandise from the Big Boston store on West Temple street, and in his flight he displayed a fearlessness unexpected of a boy, as the pursuing officer fired five shots at him but the lad paid no attention to them and continued his race until, overcome by exhaustion, he took refuge behind a high board fence, where he was captured after a feeble effort to fight off his captor.

Wilson was arrested by the officer in the rear of the Big Boston store about 8 o'clock yesterday morning. He had returned to the place after a number of shoes he is said to have stolen from the store on Saturday night. It is thought that he and several other boys secreted themselves in the store until after it was closed and then helped themselves to anything they wanted, and made their escape through a rear window. Part of the stolen goods was caught in the alleyway and it was when the boy returned for it that he was captured.

He walked quietly along with the officer for several yards; but when he felt the grasp on his collar relinquished he broke loose and before the officer realized what had happened the prisoner was a dozen yards away. The officer gave chase and commanded the boy to halt, but he only ran the faster and Junior Officer Johnston whipped out his revolver and commenced firing. He emptied his weapon, some of the shots going uncomfortably close to the young fugitive, but they did not have the intended effect and the boy kept on running.

At the corner of Third Street and First West the lad cut through a vacant lot and climbed a high board fence in the rear of a residence at 161 west Third Street, he found that in order to get out he would have to climb a still higher one on the other side, he hesitated for a time and the officer was enabled to catch up with him and he was captured and taken to the city jail.

THREE BOYS ARRESTED.

Two Confess To Breaking Into Store—Stole Shoes.

This morning Sergeant Roberts and Officer Johnston arrested John Magneetti and George Robinson, two boys who, with Joseph Wilson, stole some shoes from the Big Boston store. Robinson broke down and confessed that one boy stood on his shoulders and reached up to the window where the shoes were. A complaint charging them with petit larceny was filed this morning, and an effort will be made to have them sent to the state industrial school.
